Correct Figure 8:

The authors regretted the error and confirmed it did not significantly affect either the results or the conclusions of the paper.
