10. SOME IMPORTANT POLICIES ADOPTED IN 2020

1. Integration with Publons.

As of April 2020, our publisher, AME Publishing Company, has entered into an official partnership with Publons. The journal's peer review system is now integrated seamlessly into the Publons platform (<https://publons.com/publisher/6041/ame-publishing-company>). The partnership allows the contributions of our expert peer reviewers to be recognized more easily. For more information see: <http://lcm.amegroups.com/announcement/view/195>.

2. Reporting guidelines for original research.

For higher publishing standards and research quality, we have introduced a series of reporting guidelines for different types of research. Each original research submission to LCM is now required to follow the EQUATOR research reporting guidelines and should include a checklist. If an article is accepted, then the reporting checklist will be published online alongside the article.

3. Transparent peer review.

With a commitment to openness and accountability, and to increase the level of transparency throughout our peer review process, our Editorial Office has decided to implement a transparent peer review process as an option for all manuscripts submitted to LCM from March 19, 2020. Click here for further information:
