

Figure S1 Histopathologic examination 1 year ago. Direct immunofluorescence showed C3 linear deposition in the basement membrane area, some intraepidermal and subepidermal bullae can be seen; a small number of neutrophils and fibrin can be seen in the bullae; individual papillae of dermis are complete; and lymphoid tissue cells and individual neutrophils can be seen around blood vessels (×200).