

Table S1 Semi-structured interview guide

Your thoughts on the current treatment process for hematopoietic malignancy

How do you feel about the current treatment you are receiving for your blood disease?

How have you chosen your treatment since you were diagnosed with your blood disease? What options did you have in choosing your treatment?

You have made various choices in response to what has happened to you, what did you base your choices on?

Has there been any change between how you felt when you first received treatment and how you feel now?

What supported you during your treatment?

Thoughts about the future of your life

How do you think about your future life while you are undergoing treatment?

When you think about your future life while undergoing treatment, what do you think about, and what values do these thoughts represent for you?
