

Figure S1 The box plot is the subject in patients with pulmonary comorbidities such as emphysema or interstitial pneumonia. It shows that the LMA ratio was significantly larger in patients with pleural adhesions than in those without pleural adhesions.